

SAMPLE CONSIGNMENT AGREEMENT

Thank you for your interest in participating in Project Bread's Holiday Card program. By agreeing to sell Project Bread's holiday cards, you are showing your commitment to helping hungry children and families throughout the state.

This agreement is made by and between Project Bread and Retail Outlet.

Project Bread wishes to sell its holiday cards by consigning the cards to Retail Outlet for sale. Retail Outlet wishes to attempt to sell the holiday cards through its own sales efforts.

1. Our Commitment to You

- a. Delivery of Goods. Project Bread will arrange for the delivery of holiday cards to Retail Outlet by October 3, 2011 with all shipping and handling charges to be paid by Project Bread. Retail Outlet will not be held responsible for the loss or damage of goods prior to their delivery.
- b. Replenishing your inventory. If you would like to receive more holiday cards, you may call Ryan Schrier at 617-239-2506 at any time throughout the holiday season, and he will send you more cards.
- c. Display Materials. Project Bread will provide you with requested signage.

2. In exchange, we ask that you:

- a. Display. Retail Outlet agrees to display the cards in an attempt to promote Project Bread's mission to alleviate, prevent, and ultimately end hunger in Massachusetts.
- b. Pricing. Retail Outlet will sell Project Bread Holiday Cards for $15/pack.
- c. Consignment Period. The consignment period begins upon the delivery of Holiday Cards to Retail Outlet and will terminate on January 6, 2012, unless sooner terminated by Retail Outlet.
- d. Return of the Goods. All goods remaining unsold by Retail Outlet will be returned to Project Bread by January 13, 2012.
- e. Payment to Company. Retail Outlet will be entitled to retain $2.50 per pack of holiday cards sold. By January 13, 2012, Retail Outlet will send Project Bread a check in the amount of $12.50 per pack of cards sold, less shipping costs.
